SPORTS

COMMUNICATED

Honolulu, T. H., Aug. 20, 1914.
Sporting Editor, Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Dear Sir: As an ardent baseball fan and one who has followed the game pretty closely for over 30 years, I want to say that I believe the prospect filed by the Portuguese Athletic Club against last Sunday's game with the C. A. U.'s is well taken, as there is in my mind no doubt whatever but that Captain Statton was decidedly in error in sending Ornellas back to third base after he had scored in the eighth inning. My reason for this is that when Sloan hit his long sacrifice to centerfield with the bases full, (Carroll on third, Ornellas on second and Neves on first) Ornellas had taken a lead of some 10 or 12 feet off second and was watching the flight of the ball. As soon as the ball was caught, Ornellas went back, touched second and then made a bee line for third base. The centerfielder relayed the ball to the leftfielder, who threw the ball towards third base to catch Ornellas, and had the throw been a good one it would have caught Ornellas probably three to four feet off third base. As it was, however, the throw was wild and went past third base and struck the grandstand, and Ornellas made home on the play.

Umpire Statton is, I think, quite mistaken when he states that Ornellas did not leave second base until after the ball was thrown past third base. If Umpire Statton's view of the position of Ornellas is correct, why did the leftfielder make a hurried throw to third base? If it was not for the purpose of trying to catch Ornellas at third, what other purpose could the leftfielder have had in throwing to third? If it is true that a runner is entitled to all the bases he can get when a thrown ball hits the grandstand, then Ornellas was certainly entitled to the run he scored on the wild throw to third, even if he had not been stationed on second base when the throw was made. When a runner is going from home to first base and a ball is thrown to the right field bleachers, he is allowed to go on to second base. Why should he not be given the same advantage on a similar play at third base?

I don't believe in criticising an umpire's judgment on plays, but in this instance it was a palpable misinterpretation of the playing rules, and a misinterpretation that cost the P. A. C.'s the game.

Sincerely yours,

"ROOTER."

Honolulu, T. H., August 19, 1914.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: I have just got through reading Umpire Statton's statement about the P. A. C.'s protest, and I see he says Joe Ornellas did not leave second base until after the ball was thrown past third.

I don't see how Mr. Statton could have been watching Joe Ornellas so close if he was at the same time doing his duty and watching to see whether Johnny Carroll touched third base after the ball was caught and then touched the home plate after he ran in. Watching the men on first and second was up to Mr. Brun, who was umpiring on the bases, and I saw him following Ornellas pretty closely. Umpire Statton is off, because Joe Ornellas was about ten feet from third base when Yap missed the throw.

Yours truly,

MANUEL SOUZA.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunate, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optona; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optona tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily, and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind, or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.—advertisement.
